WHAT IS THE ESSENTIAL TEACHING WEEKEND (ETW)?

It is a residential weekend for meditators who want to deepen their experience of Christian meditation and explore how they may be called to share the gift.

The weekend is very participative drawing on our own experience as well as the teachings of John Main, Laurence Freeman and other contemplative teachers. It will focus on the practice of meditation, the rich tradition we are part of, and the spiritual journey it fosters.

While it is not a retreat, a particular focus of the weekend is to provide a time of peaceful reflection and sharing in the company of others on a similar spiritual path. There will be opportunities to ask questions, participate in workshop activities, and share ideas.
